Employees who do not enroll during the probationary period may enroll at anytime as a late enrollee subject to the Anthem Life's health underwriting requirements, including approval of the employee's application and satisfactory evidence of insurability the employee may have to provide.

The amount of insurance coverage is determined by the employer.

Voluntary Life Insurance

Voluntary Life Benefits are available to all employees in multiples of $10,000 with a minimum of $10,000 and a maximum of $500,000, not to exceed five times an employee's annual salary. Coverage is subject to underwriting standards. Premium Rate is based upon the employee's age

A spouse of a participating employee may apply for Voluntary Life coverage in increments of $5,000 to a maximum of $50,000. The coverage may not exceed 50% of the employee's coverage. (Life rate is based on the employee's age)

Coverage on both the employee and spouse reduces to 65% of the original amount when the employee attains age 65, and to 50% of the original amount at age 70.

An employee with Voluntary Life coverage may elect to add $2,500, $5,000 or $10,000 of coverage to each of his dependent children (14 or more days old until they reach age 26). The coverage chosen may not exceed 10% of the employee's Voluntary Life Coverage. The premium is $.50, $1.00 or $2.00, respectively, per month no matter how many children qualify.

All Coverage terminates at the earlier of the insured's termination of employment, retirement, or the date coverage terminates for any other reason. Portability of coverage is available.
